From the Editor

Hello - Christmas and the New Year are upon us again, and all I have for you this time is a

WARNING

*When I am an old woman I shall wear purple
With a red hat which doesn't go,
And doesn't suit me.*

*And I shall spend my pension on brandy
And summer gloves
And satin sandals, and say we've no money for butter.*

I shall sit down on the pavement when I'm tired

*And gobble up samples in shops
And press alarm bells*

*And run my stick along the public railings
And make up for the sobriety of my youth.
I shall go out in my slippers in the rain
And pick flowers in other people's gardens
And learn to spit.*

You can wear terrible shirts and grow more fat

*And eat three pounds of sausages at a go
Or only bread and pickle for a week
And hoard pens and pencils and beer mats
And things in boxes.*

*But now we must have clothes that keep us
dry
And pay our rent and not swear in the street
And set a good example for the children.
We must have friends to dinner and read the papers.*

*But maybe I ought to practice a little now?
So people who know me are not too shocked and surprised
When suddenly I am old, and start to wear purple.*

Assessment of ear size, carriage and placement

Determination of eye colour, size, shape and placement

Sugar was left at the Hulls, unwanted by his previous owners - more fool them! .We had just lost out previous rescue Boxer 'Murphy' on the 21st of December 2004 and we collected Sugar three days later on Christmas Eve - our best Christmas present ever.

I'll never forget when we first met him, he was like a pogo stick, jumping up and down. There was no way he wasn't coming home with us. So he did; and the jumping continued. It was his way of greeting us and visitors alike.

He settled in beautifully and soon became Phoebe's under-dog. He would often rummage in their toy box, not satisfied until he found what hoof etc he was looking for - usually at the bottom. He would then sit quietly and chew away. Him and Phoebe would have long conversations about it, until finally she would take it from under his nose. We used to laugh at them both.

Sugar had three cancer operations and at one stage we thought we were winning,. Sadly we didn't and on the 1st of November, Sugar let us know and we gave him our final gift.

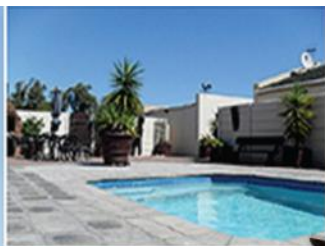

We miss him, and Phoebe does too.

Tribute to SUGAR

WPBC ANNUAL AWARDS & CHRISTMAS BRAAI PINELANDS - 8 DECEMBER 2013

As usual this fun event held at Canon Creek School was well attended and definitely one of the highlights of the year. After the awards were handed out, everyone tucked into the yummy feast set out under the lovely old trees which provide shade at this superb venue. WPBC is very fortunate indeed to be allowed to use these grounds for many of our activities. Lunch was followed by the fun events organized by Michelle Martin, which resulted in much laughter, good natured rivalry, loud objections and rather rude comments.

1. Michelle and Tara glided elegantly over the finish line to easily win the Wet T-Shirt Race while the competition stumbled and staggered behind them.

2. Macduff and Ken plodded doggedly to victory in the Egg & Spoon Race.

3. The Wards' Piper, convincing in her role as the Purple Plum Christmas Fairy, won the Fancy Dress Competition in fine style.

4. That was after the fairy's blistering 4.5 second dash which was impossible to beat in the main event, the 2013 Boxer Derby. In this race Macduff was last with a time of 13.7 seconds, because he stopped to assist a tree that was suffering in the heat.

BOXER RESCUE

A BIG thank you to all the compassionate people who were prepared to provide a Boxer in distress with the opportunity of leading a happy, secure life as part of a loving family. There were so many of them this year - some of them abused, emaciated and ill when they were rescued, others - many of them elderly - who had to leave the people they loved because of death, ill health, divorce or other unfortunate circumstances. Fortunately Michelle and those who assist her in this often distressing task, managed to find homes for the majority of these Boxers.

URGENT

Sadly, two senior Boxers who have not yet found new retirement homes and for whom time is now running out, are:

Tasha

TASHA (9), whose heartbroken owner is unable to take her with to the flat where she has to move to after her husband recently passed away.

Tasha is not social with other dogs/cats, but is very obedient.

Please contact Michelle
082 783 5926

CHARLIE (11), whose owner, due to difficult circumstances, also has to move to a flat where he is not allowed.

Charlie is superb with children, best friends with a cat but has not lived with other dogs.

Please contact Samantha
